Principal's Report: Todd Cassen

Todd thanked everyone for their time and dedication in volunteering for the school. He said these have been exciting times, a "campus on edge," with final exams and graduation events. The last four months have been an "amazing experience." WVHS received high ratings by the Washington Post. About 900 WV students took AP tests scoring an average of 3.6 on the exams. This year WVHS graduating seniors received a combined total of $9.6 million in scholarship funds.

ASB Report: Sonia Gahlhoff & Scott Fox

Sonia and Scott have been discussing methods to increase student membership in ASB. One method may be to hold two of the four Association meetings during the day in order to encourage student participation. Mary Fox added, "We all have a voice," and stressed the importance of students' participation.

Officer Reports:

Grad Nite – Lisa Smith thanked helpers and donors (for supplies and storage space). She introduced Darius Miller who will be the Chair for the 2012 Grad Nite Committee.

Chair Reports:

Honorary Service Awards – Paula Dyaico complimented the committee which included Lee Wills and Teresa Holland, on a great awards' ceremony. Todd Cassen presented plaques. There were many nominations. Award winners included: Scott Sandstrom, Debbie Vogel, Mike Kurth, Carol Robinson, Colleen Salzetti, and Mary Fox (Volunteer of the Year).

Senior Scholarships – Kathy Govea announced that the four recipients were recognized at the Student/Staff Recognition Ceremony. Mary Fox suggested that a requirement for Senior Scholarship recipients be that the recipients are PTSA members.

Registration – A volunteer is needed to chair this committee.
