

South and North

Garraty: Page 64-65

I. Rivers Shape Life: South

- A. Few Roads- Rivers acted as the roads for the South
 - 1. Slow moving and deep
 - 2. Wide and broad
 - A) Mississippi
 - B) James
 - C) Potomac
- B. Ocean going vessels could sail up the rivers for many miles
 - 1. Bring products and trade from Europe and Africa
 - 2. Brought/Traded for tobacco, rice, indigo, cotton
 - 3. Virginia population was scattered and spread out along rivers
 - 4. Few towns were needed

II. Rivers Shape Life: New England- North

- A. Rivers were shallow and full of rapids
- B. Coastal Seaports were Developed
 - 1.) Boston 2.) New Haven 3.) Newport
- C. Inland Transportation- Roads
 - 1.) Expensive 2.) Few and scarce
 - 3.) Settled In Group/Towns
- D. New England Village: Town Common- Park in the center of New England
 - 1.) Meeting Hall 2.) Town church 3.) School
 - 4.) Fields for crops: Outside town

III. Comparisons- Summary

- A. South
 - 1.) Isolated
 - 2.) Family orientated
 - 3.) Hospitality
- B. New England
 - 1.) Community minded
 - 2.) More schools
 - 3.) Religious minded

